In closing the business of the town for the past year, we have tried to make our report as clear and complete as possible. If anyone wishes to ask any questions concerning this report we shall be very glad to explain at any time.

Our tax collectors have been very efficient in collecting our past year's taxes, also back taxes. If we as citizens and taxpayers cooperate in the future as we have in the past we shall be able to continue to decrease our town debt.

We wish to thank the citizens and tax payers for their fine cooperation in the discharge of our official duties.

Respectfully submitted,
LIONEL L. MERRILL,
LESLIE E. WHARFF,
ADIN A. GREEN,

Selectmen of Willimantic.

Report of Superintendent of Schools

To the School Committee and Citizens of Willimantic:

I am submitting herewith my annual report as superintendent of your schools. In these reports it is possible to refer only briefly to the aims, needs, and achievements of the school program. Any adequate school program requires some time to plan, but there are parts of it that must be considered every year. Some of these parts will need special consideration this year.

The impact of present-day events on our social order is such as to cause us to ponder on the type of society that will eventually result and the problems it will bring. To forecast in detail just what this future society will be is, of course, impossible. At times we become aware that changes are occurring and of necessity must plan changes in educational policies to meet them. It is not conceivable that the policies of public education can be so flexible as to meet every change as it occurs. We can, however, with a considerable degree of certainty take action in molding our educational program with assurance that we are meeting present needs.

Information in regard to tax rates can be helpful to all in planning and raising school funds. This year the average of the school rates for the state is .01301, while the average of the municipal rates is .05910. The average of the school rates is the same as that for last year, and the average of the municipal rates is approximately the same. Towns having a rate for school maintenance equal to or exceeding .01301 will share in equalization in December, 1942, provided the basic measure of .012 on the state assessed valuation of the town fails to produce the minimum educational program as provided in our State Equalization Law.

The present school tax rate for Willimantic is .01113, while the municipal rate is .067. Both of these rates are just a little below what the same rates were for last year. It has been shown that the right of any town to share in equalization depends on two things. One is the school tax rate; the other is the basic measure of .012 on the state assessed valuation of the town failing to produce the minimum educational program. The basic measure of .012 on the state assessed valuation of the town will produce approximately $1,800. The town has been raising less than that sum annually for school purposes for sometime now.

SCHOOL PROGRESS

During the past year there have been few changes or departures from the established school program. Three schools are being maintained in the town. The enrollment in all of the schools for the present year is thirty, but this enrollment is so evenly divided in the three schools that all three should be able to maintain the required average daily attendance of at least eight pupils. Two changes in teachers have been made this year. One change was made before the beginning of the school year in September; the other change was made at the beginning of the winter term. I think you will find that school work in most cases is proving very satisfactory. All of the schools are very well furnished with textbooks, supplies, and other needed teaching material.

The laws provides that Courses of Study in Elementary schools shall be used in all towns as prepared by the Commissioner of Education unless the town prepares its own course of study which must have his approval. The schools in the town are furnished with copies of the Course of Study as prepared by the Commissioner of Education. It is possible, thereby, to have some definite plan of school work.

SAFEGUARDING THE SCHOOLS

Financing the schools has been made difficult in recent years by the great depression. Today the defense program is taking an increasing share of the national income. Some people are saying that we will have to sacrifice other things, including the schools to pay for defense. They ignore these facts: (1) our productive capacity has been only partly used for many years and is capable of greater increase, (2) business is now soaring to new high levels, (3) modern warfare requires trained, intelligent people at the front and at home, (4) education is vital to economic well-being, (5) when our defense efforts cease there will be crucial problems for which a vital educational program will be needed. The education of our children cannot be postponed, therefore, their education must be safeguarded or lost.

It should be deemed necessary that we continue with the policy of employing only efficient and well-trained teachers in our schools. We have found during the past year that teachers are leaving the service in ever-increasing number and included in this number are many of the most energetic, progressive and effective school people in the field. This is not a matter of choice on the part of the teachers. They are forced to do this because of our indifferent attitude and their living conditions. This shortage of teachers is likely to become more and more acute. If we are to hold this class of public servants for this most important work, we must continue to make teaching increasingly attractive. A living wage is the first step. Farsightedness in this respect may mean the difference between the continued success of the school system, and a slump even more serious than that experienced during and after the last war.

SCHOOL FUNDS AND NEEDS

This year one can only try to estimate with some degree of certainty what it will cost to maintain the schools for this coming year. We can reasonably look for increases in the cost, and make provisions for taking care of those increases when planning the school budget. The possibility of obtaining teachers for the next school year at the salaries now being paid seems very doubtful now. Neither can I give any assurance that I shall recommend in the budget the necessary funds to enable school officials to obtain desirable teachers for your schools. We can only hope that teachers may be had with whatever funds are raised.

Considering the amount expended during the past year and the likely need for funds for the coming year reasonable sums should be raised for high school tuitions, textbooks and school supplies, and insurance on buildings. The appropriations that seem necessary are being included in the budget being printed.

Most of the money expended this year in the way of school repairs was for special cleaning at the No. 1 building, for care of the floors, and for parts to stoves. There was little money available, so not much of anything was planned for repairs about the school buildings.

Plans should be made at this March meeting so that the roof of the No. 3 building can be shingled this coming summer. This is a large roof, and will need, for the work, many shingles and several days of labor. Then there will be some cost for other material that is needed when shingling is being done. The condition of one of the stoves is such that plans should be made for repairing that soon. As always some funds will be needed for general repairs and for material.

ANNUAL REPORT OF PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

This is a community containing a good number of young health minded mothers who avail themselves of knowledge concerning child care, through free literature and home nursing visits.

In June a well attended child health conference was held in conjunction with the Farm Bureau. Eleven children were examined by a physician, four received immunization against diphtheria.

Plans are under way for a class in Home Nursing to be taught soon after the first of the year.

ELEANOR GRIFFITHS,
Public Health Nurse.

To the Selectmen and citizens of Willimantic, I hereby submit the report of the Piscataquis County Nursing Service for the year beginning January 1, 1941 and ending December 31, 1941.

An individual inspection of school children was made in May and again in October.

Number of pupils inspected in October	30
“ “ with vision defects	3
“ “ teeth defects	20
“ “ with throat defects	4
“ “ with orthopedic defects	1
Number of notices sent to parents	16
Number of home visits made	4

The largest number of defects were those of teeth, the number being 20. Annual physical inspection of 28 pupils showed 6 potential Seven Point pupils.

Our records of service do not show any tuberculosis cases in this town.

Citizens are reminded to call the nurse to assist them in solving their health problems.

Appreciation is extended to all who have helped to make this service possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Piscataquis County Nursing Service
By NELLIE R. GIBBONS, R. N.,
Public Health Nurse.

Preserve This Report

A sufficient number of these reports have been printed to furnish every interested citizen with a copy. An effort has been made to get them into the hands of the voters in advance. It should be borne in mind that if copies are left at home there may not be a sufficient number at the hall to go around on town meeting day. This year or any year it is desirable for you to have a copy of the annual report as soon as issued. It is also important for you to preserve it and bring it with you town meeting day morning.
